HUMAN CAPITAL RECRUITERS, LLC

Since late 2008, Investor Groups who have a Business Plan to Start a New Community Bank have reached out to Human Capital Recruiters first to find them a President and Executive Management team. As we communicate with the lawyers and the Bank Regulators we are finding that the FDIC has a full plate and is not issuing new Bank Charters for the foreseeable future..

The Investors are ready to go NOW! The Regulators are NOT. What should the investor do?

The answer is to work with HCRLLC to pull together resources that can help another Bank who may be under capitalized get to the next level or reduce audit deficiencies. We will match your Investment Plan and your potential Board Members with a compatible Bank Board who needs and wants your capital infusion.

Human Capital Recruiters is working with three major Investment Banking Firms who will not ask for your business or charge you until the deal is done! We also are communicating with six Law Firms who specialize in Bank Formation with close ties to the Bank regulators.

We make the connections, you make the deal work!
